

Principle 2: Mirror Texting

LEVEL 4 Goal:

You will learn how to decode your text conversations with women and see exactly how long you should take to text her back, how much effort you should put in your texts (how many words/sentences/etc), and what your energy should be when you reply (how excited you should seem).

All of that information is given to you with every unique woman you message... once you learn to 'Mirror Text'.

2 DOWNLOADS in LEVEL 4:

In LEVEL 4 of the Texting School curriculum, I highly recommend the first thing you do is read the Principle 2 Mirror Texting ebook chapter.

This chapter will help lay a foundation for this level, and then the rest of this level we can go DEEPER on the information you learned from the ebook chapter.

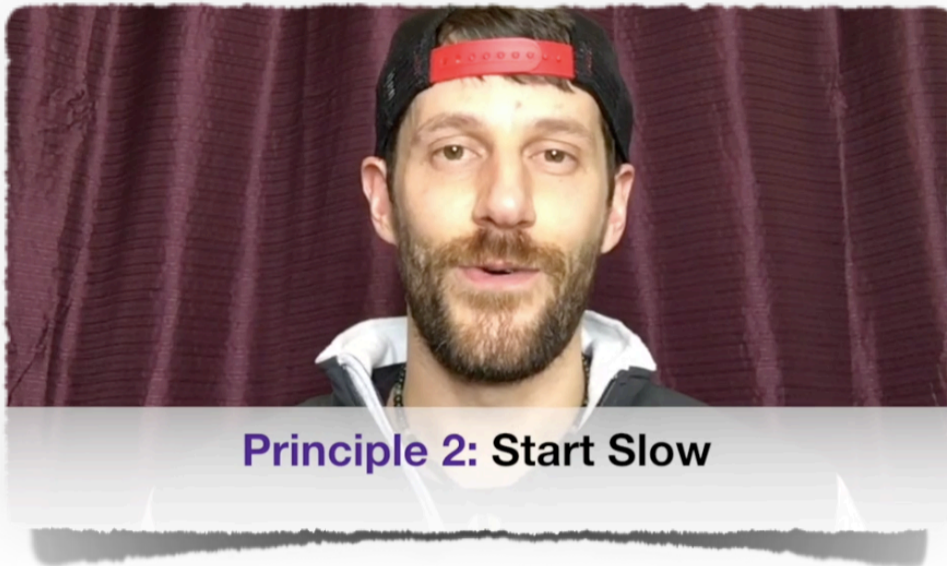

After downloading and reading the eBook chapter, you also can download the 29 minute audio recording for Principle 2.

This audio recording is where I took the audio of the 5 main video lessons from Principle 2 - so that you could listen to them on the go.

Once you have read the eBook chapter then dig right into the video content from LEVEL 4 and start to really understand how to MIRROR TEXT each unique woman you are messaging.

Lesson 1:

Start Slow

Lesson 1 recap:

In the very early stages of texting / messaging a woman, you want to start out replying SLOW.

As we dive deeper into Mirror Texting throughout this level, you'll learn that as men we never want to reply quicker than she is taking to reply to us.

A woman will always tell you how much she likes you based on her actions... one of those actions is how quickly she replies to you.

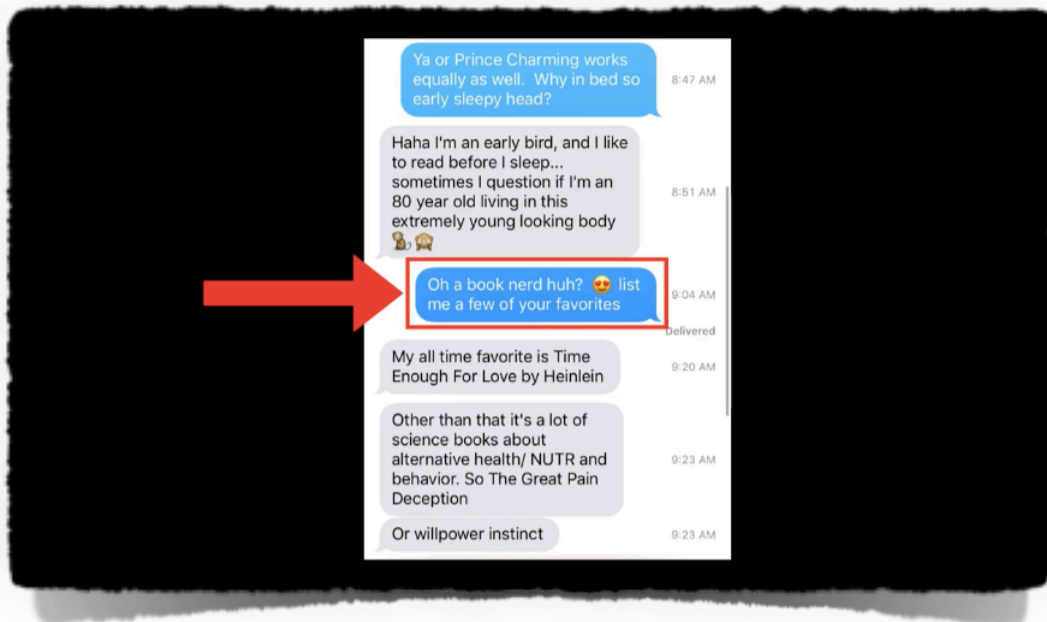

The slower you reply to her, the quicker she will reply to you... IF she likes you.

This specific rule of starting out SLOW means that even if she replies to your texts or messages quickly - you want to wait an hour at the minimum

You'll understand why this is so important when we dive deeper into Poker Player Texting next level, but for now, your goal is to wait at least an hour to reply in the first few days of messaging a woman.

Optional Text Example Lesson recap:

Being playful is a great way to 'relate' to women

In this text example I go from the online dating app Bumble to my early texting conversation. A great way to relate to women and connect with them is to show them a playful side of you.

One way that you can do this is to simply 'play along' and role-play with women. If you can do this in a cool, calm, and collected way then women will naturally play along and have a lot of fun doing it.

In this example she messages me about Disney and asks for my favorite Disney movie. I answer and then 'play along' by mirroring the pattern of her sentence and simply asking a different question about Disney.

When you practice doing this, you realize all you have to do is pay attention to women and it becomes a lot of fun to just 'play along' and see where their imagination takes it.

Mirror Her Time

Lesson 2 recap:

Any woman will show you exactly how long they want you to take to text them back... when you understand her clues

It is as simple as looking at the time it took for her to reply to your last text. If it took her 10 minutes to reply to your last text... you must wait at least 10 minutes before you should write her back.

If she takes 3 days to reply to your last text... you wait at least 3 days to reply back.

What if she never texts you again??

Then she literally was not interested.

Contrary to what we are told... women WILL pursue a man she wants. If she isn't showing any interest, that is because there is NO interest and now you can move on and spend your time meeting new women and focusing on accomplishing goals you have.

How to Get a Woman to Text You Back Right Away

Optional Text Example Lesson recap:

There is a 'game' of chicken you are always playing early on with a woman you are messaging.

Think of this like a game of 'chicken' - who is going to cave first. If she takes 3 hours and then you are waiting 3 hours to reply... eventually she will cave if she likes you, and she will start replying way QUICKER to you.

As long as you always take longer to reply, you'll start to notice that when you win this game of 'chicken' by holding out and not caving and texting her too soon, she WILL reward you by submitting and starting to reply to you quicker.

Remember - You must be patient in order for this to pay off.
You must plant the roots before you see the fruits come out of the ground.

Lesson 3:

Mirror Her Effort

Watch Now

(7 minute video)

Lesson 3 recap:

Any woman will show you exactly how much effort you should put into your texts to her (how many words / sentences, etc.)

When mirroring her effort you can simply look at how MANY texts she sends compared to yours (you want her to send AT LEAST 1 text to every one of your texts) and you also want to take into account how long each text is in length.

The idea here again is that a masculine man will not be putting as much effort into texting as a woman will.

Therefore you should always be texting LESS as far as quantity of texts and LESS words in each text you send than she does.

Plus - think about it - supply and demand

The less words you write, the more attention she will pay to each and every one of those words.

Guys who text her novels she gets bored of - but your texts she will read and enjoy.

Lesson 4:

Mirror Her Energy

Watch Now

(4 minute video)

Lesson 4 recap:

There are 3 main stages of 'energy' I put each woman in that I am texting.

Just based on her texts - you can get a feel for whether she seems really excited and enthusiastic to text you (that's a good sign)

Whether she seems 'neutral' or just kinda average excitement of texting you (most women start out in this stage)

Or... whether she seems 'cold' or 'distant' when she is texting you (not good)

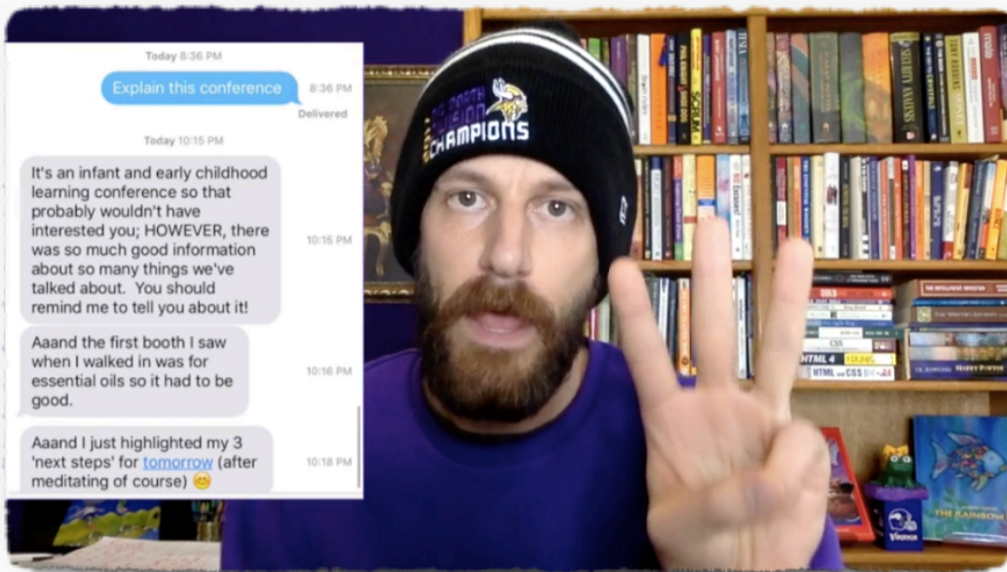

Here is the rule - you want to be coming from a lower 'energy' than she is in your texting.

That means that she should seem more excited and more eager to text you than you seem to text her

This isn't to be mean - this is just the rules of attraction - women want a masculine man - and masculine men aren't super eager and excited to spend time texting on a cell phone

OPTIONAL LESSON:

When Women Want to Talk/Text, LET THEM (text example)

Join Texting School To Watch Video

(10 minute video)

Optional Text Example Lesson recap:

Whether in texting or in person with women - you always want to get HER to talk more and open up more

As humans we all like being 'heard' and 'listened to' - and women ESPECIALLY love this.

Whether in texting or in person - the more you can get her to talk or to text, the better. The more connected she will feel to you. The more understood she will feel by you.

SO - anytime you have the opportunity, you want to get her to talk.

You text less and you try to get her to open up and explain things more.

Make sure to watch this video to get more details on HOW to spot opportunities to get her to talk more

Lesson 5:

Emoticons

Watch Now

(7 minute video)

Lesson 5 recap:

Emoticons SHOULD be used by every single guy... you want to use them rarely but when you do, they can be very powerful.

Think about the classic line -

“A picture is worth a thousand words”

So - as long as you don't overdo it - you can send a lot shorter messages when you find a good emoticon to replace your words.

Just make sure to keep 'Mirror Energy' in mind with this one, you don't want to be showering her with emojis when she is rarely sending them because emojis can send a higher energy if you overdo it.

However - if you stick to sending less than one emoji per text, and sending LESS emojis than she does overall, you should be fine.

You don't need to force emojis, but be open to it because it can help you keep your texts nice and short - partnered with an emoji - and women respond well to that.

What to look forward to in LEVEL 5

LEVEL 5 - Principle 3 : Poker Player Texting (7 videos)

LEVEL 5 preview:

Next level in Level 5 you will learn 2 extremely crucial things: How to spot 'patterns' in your texting conversations and how to show up as masculine through texting (as opposed to feminine or 'BETA')

In Level 5 there will be 7 videos breaking down how to notice and understand the patterns in your texting conversations - and then how to use 'masculine' texting to shift the conversation to where she starts pursuing you more often.

This is called 'Poker Player Texting' because in poker, you want to keep a poker face and not reveal your cards. I will be teaching you how to notice the patterns in your text conversations so that SHE starts to reveal clues about how she feels - simply by understanding her texting 'pattern' and knowing how to use that to get information about her feelings towards you.
